Total Profit - $976.93

Receipts were in an envelope with an itemized list which is "way cool"!

Dixon and MaryAnn

They emailed about membership. Their donation didn't match what they gave.

Does Carol know about it? It was guessed that the initial money was credited toward their membership and rest as a donation.

"It's a Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play"

It's going surprisingly well. There will be some radio ads and interviews. Tech day will be easy, but still need help and in need of ushers.

"Ave Q"

It will be the first time Will will have show which will experience the time change twice. The show has already had some controversy, but Will met with everyone involved and wrote up a statement.

Someone was not happy with the casting and wrote about it on Facebook, starting a wide debate about casting within races.

The show is fully cast, with swings and understudies.

How do we work more to become more inclusive?

LuLaRoe

The fundraiser went well, just fewer people. We didn't get the company matching but still got $70 - every little bit helps! And there was very little to do with setup and no cost to us.

Light Christmas Parade

The parade is December 1st. We will meet at 4:45pm.

Cast members from the Christmas show will be there, Kimberly is buying the candy canes. Sally took the banner and magnets.

Paddock

Amy went to the OCCCA meeting but nothing was decided. The offer Amy dropped off wasn't given to everyone. Tim gave numbers, but they didn't really add up. Someone's giving out some wrong information.

Sally has previous numbers from around 2000 for Hickory Grove.

Would Creston Booster Hall be a good future option? It's not in Rochelle, is not accessible and much smaller than our current space.

We could offer and make some payment for the utilities until March to keep "Ave Q" in Paddock.

Pete has a warehouse he has offered for our use. We will investigate it and other places. The church across from the high school is for sale. What is happening with the old Lincoln School?

Culminating Event

It is still set for Jan. 13th at the Clubhouse.

The Jan. 24th meeting will be at Amy's office.

Meeting adjourned.
